

MARK E. FAFORD

*Vice President, Investor Relations and Corporate Communications
Arch Chemicals, Inc.*

Mark E. Faford is Vice President of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications of Arch Chemicals, Inc. (NYSE: ARJ), a global Biocides company with annual sales of over $1 billion. In this role, he is the Company's primary liaison to the investment community and oversees Arch's corporate communications function, including media relations and executive and employee communications. Prior to his promotion in April 2009, he served as Director of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications since 2001.

At the time of Arch's founding in February 1999, Mr. Faford worked as Director of Corporate Financial Analysis. He was subsequently appointed to Director of Investor Relations in mid-1999.

Mr. Faford joined Arch's predecessor company, Olin Corporation, in 1977 in the accounting department, and has held positions of increasing financial responsibility in international finance, information technology, operations and research and development. He also served as General Manager of the Sulfuric Acid business from 1997-1998, and led the Arch team that divested this business to Peak Sulfur, Inc. in 2003.

A 1977 graduate of Pennsylvania State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting, he went on to earn his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Connecticut in 1981. He is a member of the National Investor Relations Institute (NIRI).

Mr. Faford is located at Arch Chemicals' headquarters in Norwalk, Connecticut.